ABOUT MATTHEW DURHAM

Matthew Durham is a partner of Stoel Rives' Litigation and Employment Law practice groups. He represents clients in state and federal courts and administrative agencies in matters relating to employment discrimination, harassment, wrongful termination, wage and hour, drug testing, leave, benefits and labor/occupational safety issues. He routinely advises clients on developing and implementing personnel policies and complying with state and federal employment laws. Matthew also represents clients in general civil litigation matters and has mediated employment disputes.

Prior to joining Stoel Rives, Matt was a law clerk for the Honorable Monroe G. McKay, U.S. Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals (1992-1993), and an associate at Van Cott, Bagley, Cornwall & McCarthy (1993-1998).
