ABOUT THE CLASS

John L. Young will focus on recent developments and current issues facing Subcontractors in the documents they use daily for construction projects. John will further discuss project management methods required to address and manage these issues before, during, and after completion of the project. New Appellate Court decisions, new statutes and new contract documents/provisions all come together to create new project management issues that must be understood before projects begin. John will outline the steps that must be taken during performance and when the project is completed.

ABOUT JOHN L. YOUNG

John L. Young's practice focuses on construction law, surety law and civil litigation. He is a member of the Utah State Bar, the Wyoming State Bar and the American Bar Association, Forum on the Construction Industry and Litigation Section.
